How we define spouse, domestic contract, member, former member, owner, and financial institution

Spouse

- The person you are married to.
- The person you are married to, if the marriage hasn't been legally ended.
- The person you thought you were married to, if you are still living together.
- The person you thought you were married to, if you have lived together in the last 12 months.
- The person who is your registered domestic partner under the Vital Statistics Act.
- The person you have been living with in a sexual relationship for at least one year, if neither of you are married to someone else.
- The person you have been living with in a sexual relationship for at least three years, even if one or both are you are married to someone else.

Domestic contract

A domestic contract means

- a written agreement that provides for a division between spouses of a pension benefit, deferred pension, or pension.
- a marriage contract as defined in the Matrimonial Property Act

Member – member of a pension plan

Former member – a person who is entitled to pension benefits and

- is no longer employed by the organization that provides the pension
- is no longer a member of the pension plan

Note: A person who had the right to some pension benefits earned by a spouse and is no longer in a relationship with that spouse is NOT considered a former member.

Owner – the owner of a locked-in retirement account (LIRA), a life income fund (LIF) or a life annuity.

Financial institution – a bank, a credit union, an insurance company, or any organization that invests money in financial assets
